

Noah's Wish

Saving the lives of animals affected by disasters

Noah's Wish is a not for profit animal welfare organization with a straightforward, singular mission. We provide life saving services for animals during the response and recovery stages of disasters. That's it.

What makes us unique?

- A well trained, highly skilled and experienced volunteer base located throughout the United States and Canada available to meet response requests.
- Having just one focus, we are able to direct all our efforts into developing the most effective and efficient processes and procedures for animal disaster response. This includes such things as:
 - Rapid mobilization of volunteers to disaster sites
 - Functional operation of temporary animal evacuation shelters
 - Replacement of supplies and equipment needed by disaster victims to care for their animals
 - Veterinary care for animals who become sick or are injured as a result of a disaster
 - Specialized in-field training programs for our volunteers
 - Preparedness efforts to help people with disaster planning
 - Outreach programs to education the public on disaster preparedness
- Services we provide:
 - Evacuation and rescue of animals
 - Recovery services
 - Sheltering and foster care, both long and short term
 - Partnership programs
